

RESOLUTION 2025-09-24 (1)

Date: September 24, 2025

To: THA Board of Commissioners

From: April Black
Executive Director

Re: Third Party Project-Based Voucher (PBV) Rent Limits

This resolution would limit the amount of rent that third-party providers can charge for project-based vouchers.

BACKGROUND

Tacoma Housing Authority (THA) contracts with multiple third-party providers to provide affordable housing using the Project Based Voucher (PBV). PBVs are tied to the unit, and third parties typically accept referrals through Coordinated Entry, or they manage their own waitlist. THA houses approximately 619 households through our third-party PBV partners.

It is customary for THA's third-party partners to cap rents at the Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) payment standard level. This has been an ongoing practice and THA's third-party partners have been agreeable to following these limits. However, THA has not formally adopted a rent cap to ensure that our partners maintain rents at the HCV payment standard level.

24 CFR 983.301 outlines how rents are set on the PBV program:

Amount of rent to owner. Except for certain tax credit units as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, the rent to owner must not exceed the lowest of:
